All flying fees are due Saturday 13 April 2019. Payment can be made at the Rod Hatherly building from 10 am.

7.2 QRPF Driver for 2019 season

The QRPF has employed a new driver for the 2019 race season. We would like to welcome Mr Rob Boyce to the QRPF liberation team. Steve Field will be once again be the liberator and does a great job taking care of our birds.

7.3 QRPF sections for 2019

L Vanderlinde provided some proposed map with members divided into four sections North, South, SE and West section. The QRPF representatives provided feedback and were all happy with the layout of the sections. Len Vanderlinde will divide the members as per section for point system only.

7.4 QRPF Crate allocator for 2019

On the 13th April crates will be allocated to clubs once flying fees have been paid. The clubs will be required to re-paint their crate any colour that's suites their club and mark them with club letters. The QRPF transporter can only handle 84 big crates and 48 Small crates. Any member requesting trainer for the first race must book with Len Vanderlindé on the weekend of 27 April. Training crates will cost $25, 00 per crate and only small crates can be used. The availability of training crates will depend on how many members fly the first series.
