

8.2 QRPF One Birder

The management Committee has agreed to have a One Birder on the rest week of 2022 season from Roma. The race will be open to NRC & MDIRPC. Basketing will take place at Rod Hatherly building with two race options.

Race 1 $50, 00 entry for the one birder. Race 2 released 30 mins after is a two Birder entry $50.00 for both birds with the average velocity of both birds will determine the winner. Prize money will be based on 1 Prize for every 5 competitors for both races.

W Reese has kindly offered to transport the birds and will have a liberator to assist. The birds will be basket Friday with clock reading the Saturday at Rod Hatherly Building. Any additional Feedback from Clubs is Welcome.

8.3 Pigeon Race net Program

W Garner asked if clubs are allowed to have multiple members with passwords and is it possible for any one to manipulate the results. B Snyman outlined that Pigeon Race net only works with username and Password so it cannot be manipulated. Should a club require multiple users then a request may be submitted to the QRPF secretary.

8.4 ANRPB National race

J Profke outlined that the ANRPB would not be hosting the National from Cobar as there is not enough interest. J Profke requested if the QRPF would consider hosting Qld National. The Management committee has approved to hold a national from the last weekend from the Quilpie race. The QRPF will be transporting the birds free of charge for any organization that wishes to compete in the QLD National or other Organisations could meet at Quilpie and liberate together. All organisations that wish to use the QRPF transporter will need to have birds loaded at the Rod Hatherly Building. All competitors can send or nominate 5 Birds at $10.00 each. The QRPF members may send 30 bird team but only nominate to max of 5 birds to compete in the QLD National. More details to follow after communications will be sent out to Qld Racing Pigeon Organisations.

8.5 QPF Life Ring Reporting.

W Reese raised that there are members that are not picking up the lost QPF birds within the appropriate time frame after notification from QRPF Ring secretary. The Management committee has agreed to name & shame any member that does not pick up their lost QPF bird. Reoffenders will be financially penalised.
